D.O. No.K-11021/02/2012- AR

Dated 7th May, 2012

Dear Shri Pachau,

The Government of India has instituted 'Prime Minister's Awards for excellence in Public Administration' to acknowledge, recognize and reward the extraordinary and innovative work done by officers of the Central and State Governments. These awards were introduced for the first time during the year 2005-06 (copy of the scheme is enclosed). Nominations are now being invited for the year 2011-2012 under the Scheme.

2. Though a large number of nominations were received for the awards for the years 2005-06, 2006-07, 2007-08, 2008-09, 2009-2010 and 2010-11 quite a few of these were found to be ineligible, being not in conformity with the guidelines of the scheme. Therefore, while inviting nominations for the current year, it is felt necessary to highlight and reiterate the salient features of the Scheme as well as operational guidelines evolved for the purpose, as follows :

- (a) Nominations should strictly adhere to the guidelines of the Scheme and the eligibility criteria be specifically complied with.
- (b) Self nominations are not accepted.
- (c) In respect of nominations from States, the State Governments will constitute State level committees to shortlist their nominations and verify the facts before forwarding the nominations to the Central Government.
- (d) Nominations should generally be encouraged. However, nominating authorities and State-level committees are requested to forward/short-list nominations only if the initiative(s)/ accomplishment(s) concerned is/are truly innovative, extraordinary, outstanding, exemplary and/or exceptional in nature. In other words, nominations should rank as exceptional on qualitative as well as quantitative measures for the achieved outcomes/results.
