OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject : Strict adherence to instructions regarding Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) meetings.

Despite the instructions issued from time to time on convening of Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) meetings, it has been noticed that certain Departments are still issuing notices for DPC meetings at very short notice, that is, one or two days prior to the meeting, or even on the date of the meeting itself. Such instances indicate that the requisite preparatory work such as assessment of vacancies, regularisation of service particulars, finalisation of agenda papers, etc., has not been completed well in advance. This practice results in avoidable administrative inconvenience to DP&AR in detailing its representatives for the DPC meeting and in scrutinising the agenda papers beforehand.

Accordingly, with a view to obviate such difficulties, all Departments are hereby directed to strictly adhere to the following instructions. In the event of non-compliance, DP & AR shall not be held responsible for any inability to detail officers or representatives to attend the DPC meeting::

1. Agenda papers for promotion, confirmation etc. should be submitted to the Under Secretary of the concerned wing OF DP&AR well in advance and in any case, not less than 5(five) working days prior to the date of the DPC meeting.
2. In view of the limited strength of officers in the Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms (DP&AR), who are also required to attend various Government meetings besides performing their routine official functions, the Under Secretary of the concerned wing of DP&AR may be consulted while scheduling the date and time of the Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) meeting in order to ensure the availability of representative of DP&AR.
3. The instructions regarding rationalization among various wings of DP&AR for attending Departmental Promotion Committee and Departmental Screening Committee meetings, as issued vide Memo. No.A.45011/1/2016-P&AR(GSW), dt. 16.05.2016 are hereby reiterated for information and strict compliance by all departments.
